

"upload": File

}

```
List: GET()
                                                           Create Response: POST()
                                                                                                          <<Response
+ url: /pm/response/?queryparams
                                                   + url: /pm/response/
+ request params: None
                                                  + request params: {
+ required query-params: rfi=int
                                                  rfi: int or str
+ query-param: can be used to filter
                                                  subject: str
results as long as they map to the RFI
                                                  body: str
                                                  attachments: Optional: a list of files
model
+ response {
"results": [
                                                  + response {
                                                  "results": {
       "id": int,
                                                      id: int,
                                                       subject: str
       "subject": str,
                                                       body: str
       "body": str
       "date_created":datetime,
       "f user": int,
       "rfi": int
 ]
```

```
List: GET()
+ url: /pm/job/?queryparams
+ request params: None
+ query-param: can be used to filter
results as long as they map to the RFI
model
+ Returns a list of jobs based on the user's permission level.
+ response {
"results": [
      "id": int,
       "name": str,
      "date_created": datetime,
       "assigned_users": [
           "id": int,
            "email": str
```

<<Job Endpoints>>